SEND Process

1. Early Identification

Initial discussion with parents. SENDCo may be involved.

2. SEND Support Plan

Class teacher, parents and SENDCo assess the child and write a SEN Support Plan with specified targets. Review date set and targets measured.

3. Discuss next steps

Either removal of SEN Support Plan due to good progress made or proceed with the completion of an Early Help form and/or Health Services form with parents' consent.

4. Complete the Early Help/Health Services Form

Identify appropriate professionals to refer to (Educational Psychologist, Speech & Language Therapist, Community Paediatrician etc.)

5. Specialist will make appropriate observations

School will follow recommendations requesting any further support if required.

6. Final Steps

Decision to close the Early Help process or request assessment for an Education Health Care Plan.
