Date: Monday 23rd November 2020

On Sunday we celebrated the Feast of Christ of King; it is the last Sunday of the current liturgical year in the Church. Next Sunday Advent begins. It is all about endings and beginnings. These months have been and sadly continue to be draining, demanding and difficult on a personal, local, national and global level for all of us. Advent is the season of joyful hope, so we pray that at this time of the year that with God's help we will do all we can to remain faithful, optimistic and hopeful. In this Gospel, Jesus speaks about the 'end times'. He describes what will take place when what is called 'the final judgement' happens. The question being asked is where will Jesus be found now and at the end of time? Christ the King will not be found in a palace living in wealth exercising power. Jesus will be found where the most in need are; refugee camps, homeless shelters, hospitals and prisons. Those who call themselves followers of Jesus will also be found there welcoming, listening, reaching out and caring for those whose are poor and on the margins of both church and society. The Kingdom of God is a kingdom of truth and life, holiness and grace, justice, love and grace. It is not a kingdom of power, prestige or politics. As those who call ourselves 'Christian' and follow Jesus, we are called not only to enjoy the benefits of the Kingdom, but to do all we can to build and promote it here and now. We do this through how we live and treat others, especially those who are excluded and marginalised. We are called to be active participants not just silent spectators in God's Kingdom. Scripture reminds us of when we read, 'our love is not to be words and just talk, but something real and active.' (1 Jn. 3.18). We are called to feed the hungry, house the homeless, visit the prisoner, clothe the naked and welcome the stranger wherever and whenever we can.

Last Week

Everyone at Saint Anthony's knows what a fantastic music department we have, led by Mrs Mills. Well, now the whole world knows! Last week we received the 'Music Mark' award from the Association of music education. The children love their music lessons and we pride ourselves on the opportunities that the children experience through their music learning.

Thank you to everyone who has already signed up to their School Cloud account. The details went to every family last week. Please make sure you log on and book your parents evening slots for this term. Appointments will be 10 minutes long with your children's class teacher and will be held virtually to minimise risks to staff and parents.

The WORD of the Week:

Each week we would like to share a scripture with you to share and discuss with your children:
'Jesus replied, "Very truly I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God unless they are born again.'

John 3:3

Eternal Father,
whose Son Jesus Christ ascended to the throne of heaven that he might rule over all things as Lord and King:
